WORLD DESTINATION WEDDINGS AND ROMANCE TRAVEL AWARDS

IADWP (International Association of Destination Wedding Professionals) was created with the express purpose of helping to educate Travel Agents and Wedding Planners that specialize in Romance Travel. Besides our educational conferences and trade shows, we offer our members the opportunity to utilize our association website to research destinations, hotels / resorts, photographers, and vendors servicing the needs of engaged couples planning their destination weddings and honeymoons.

IADWP originated 10-years ago as MeWed, curating conferences and trade shows for Destination Wedding professionals interested in increasing their knowledge of Mexico, Mexican resorts and Mexican vendors, so they could be more knowledgeable in assisting their clients. Today, as IADWP, we have grown to be the largest association of its kind offering international conferences, seminars, webinars and certification programs for its members to assure that they are always on the cutting edge of the industry.

International Association of Destination Wedding Professionals is organizing "Awards" event for the industry professionals. We offer nominations in 16 different Destination Weddings and Romance Travel categories that we will select the best of each category through public vote. Our goal is to recognize, encourage and reward those who are successful in their business activities and practices.

You can apply and be nominated for these major Sectoral Awards that would be subject to public voting. Our Awards to be presented to winners in Turkey/Istanbul between the dates of 21 and 23 October of 2021. Please click here for application on IADWP Awards
